Foreword

We, the Spirit of Oceanside Senior High, will try to bring to you in this pictorial essay the growth of OHS through these last fifty years. Even more important, we will highlight the events of 1960. We know that this book can only be a pale commentary compared to the many warm memories in your minds, but it's our hope that we can make those fond memories a little more distinct and a little more alive.

Dedication

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of Oceanside's graduating class, fifty years of seeking to fan the spark of curiosity into a desire for knowledge, fifty years of striving to develop educated men and women. Just as you judge a machine by its products, so do you judge a school by its graduates. Using this scale, Oceanside High has done itself well, for from its halls have come the proud new citizens of tomorrow. We therefore dedicate this 1960 Spindrift to them, Oceanside High's alumni, the torchbearers of our school's good name.

Administration

I am the administrative Spirit of Oceanside Senior High, the guiding spirit. Molded by my hands are my graduates: I helped mold their minds and hearts. I've been doing it for fifty years now, in so many places that sometimes I almost feel old. I remember when I started back in 1910 with Principal Robert L. Weaver and a brand new $75,000 school building. I thought it was wonderful, with sixteen classrooms and two laboratories, but Oceanside grew so fast that in the following year a new school had to be built, with the commencement being held on the unfinished third floor. I remember next the hectic year of 1918, the year Babe Ruth was a new Yankee pitcher and women still wore hobble skirts. It was the year of America's entrance into the war, the year of liberty bond drives, Red Cross activities, and the graduation of six students from Oceanside High. I remember my many years of growth under such men as Mr. S. Taylor Johnson and Dr. Walter S. Boardman, both serving Oceanside for many years, and instituting such changes as a physical training department and wider curriculums. In 1935 and again in 1956 I moved, and I am now settled in our fine new high school under the leadership of Principal Charles Mosback. However, the schools have never been as important to me as the students. Sometimes, when responsibility bows my shoulders, and my heart feels heavy with age, I look at them, entering immature and a little afraid and leaving the leaders, the merchants, the businessmen, and the teachers of tomorrow, and I am revitalized. I BUILD.

Board of Education

MR. THOMAS O. MORGAN
President

Our deep appreciation goes forth in recognition of the superior performance exhibited by the members of the Board of Education. Faced with the backbreaking job of supervision and guidance over local education, this group of dedicated men has again turned in an outstanding performance.

Through their forming of school policy, the Board has been responsible for every major advance that OHS has made during its years of existence. One look at the high caliber men who hold these posts will give a hint as to why Oceanside today has such a fine educational system. Under the able guidance of President Thomas O. Morgan and Vice-President John E. Vandermosten, Oceanside will continue in the future as it has in the past, educationally sound.

Our Superintendent

MR. McDONALD F. EGDORF

We have always been fortunate in Oceanside to have men outstanding in the field of education serve as our superintendents. Since taking the position last year, our present superintendent Mr. McDonald F. Egdorf is continuing this fine tradition. Mr. Egdorf is a nationally known school administrator and an extremely capable and personable leader. Serving as superintendent of schools in both Michigan and New York State, Mr. Egdorf has been responsible for the many strides his schools have made in modern education and advanced curriculum. In his capacity as superintendent in Oceanside and elsewhere, Mr. Egdorf has been a leader dedicated to the welfare of the community and the ideals of higher education.

Preceding Mr. Egdorf as superintendent was Dr. Walter S. Boardman. For over twenty years Dr. Boardman devoted his time and his vast knowledge to the furtherance of higher education. Our high academic and athletic standing is a wonderful testimonial to his accomplishments.

Our first superintendent was Mr. S. Taylor Johnson, an able administrator who served our community from 1926-1940. Under the guidance of such fine men, Oceanside has always been and will remain an outstanding school system.

Seniors

I am the Spirit of the graduating class of 1960. I am a mixture of its laughs, its tears, its cries of victory, its groans of defeat. I have over five hundred facets, my seniors, each one adding his own luster and sparkle to the whole. I'm proud of you, for in your shining faces is compounded that intangible thing, spirit, which makes a high school outstanding.

Now, as graduation grows near, I look back at you, and I remember. I remember the wild abandon of the victory rides home, the soft music of the prom, the determined silence in the library the week before term papers. I recall the backslapping exultation at the Freeport game, the quiet tension during regents exams, but most of all I recall you, my seniors.

The end of this school year will mean to some of you the breaking of ties, and, the separation from old friends. For others it will be the end of preparation and the beginning of careers. For all, however, it will be a momentous time, a time of change. I, the spirit of this graduation year, will be separated into all my facets and exist only in your memories. I will not die, however, for as long as you remember this year, I will flourish and grow.

Activities

Who am I, the Spirit of Activities? I'm the young scientist, in whom the bud of curiosity may flower into a career; I'm the would-be editor, sweating over proofs long after the school is deserted; I'm the boy politician, resounding his speech in an empty auditorium the day before elections. I'm a myriad of different after-school activities, all with the same basic aim: to more fully educate the student through making him assume responsibility and leadership.

I can be found any day after school roaming through the halls; by now, I'm quite a familiar sight. In the early days of our school, however, I was not so popular. Because of the lack of adequate facilities, I was found mainly in the classroom in the form of spelling bees or debates. Taking it philosophically, I vowed to do the best in what I could, and for many years the Oceanside High Debating Team reigned as county champs.

Since then I've grown tremendously. I've sprouted publications and language clubs and service clubs and scientific clubs until I'm exhausted. I've had doughnut sales and scholarship drives and card parties until I thought I'd never have enough time, but I've always had enough.

Whether it be with a solitary spelling bee or a thousand clubs, I've never lost sight of my goal: to round the rough edges of my students with the sands of extra-curricular activities.

The General Organization

The General Organization is the nucleus of all student activities in OHS. The G. O. sponsors all sports, publications, and assemblies. In addition, the G. O. is our student government. Under advisor Mr. Robert Sodemann and President Joseph Kunkel, the G. O. has again had another fine year, with such accomplishments as the Foreign Exchange Program, the G. O. dances, and the Leadership Workshop at East Marion.

The Student Court

Under the direction of its capable advisor Mr. George Smalling and Chief Justice Mitchell Hall, the Student Court has done a fine job as the judiciary branch of our school government. The court, composed of seven justices elected by the Student Council, holds its sessions twice a month. Trials are held for all people given summons by the Student Patrol, with violators being punished accordingly. The Student Court is truly an example of Oceanside High's democratic government.

Dear Students,

When I am sitting here and trying to let my thoughts go back over the year I have spent with you, I am surprised how short a time it seems. I have had so many new and exciting experiences. The advanced teaching methods, the beautiful school building, and the help you are offered in order to get into college are all new to me. Aside from this, I will never forget the excitement and happiness after a victorious football or basketball game. I feel that I have benefited from my extra-curricular activities and from the little chats I've had with you. I wish to thank you for the friendliness you have shown me this year. It has meant so much to me, and I sincerely hope that the same friendliness will be shown the exchange students who I hope will come after me. But then I know that I will forever remember with joy my stay in Oceanside. Best of luck to all of you in the future.

Sincerely,
YVONNE

The Oceanside Chapter of the American Field Service was started during the past year. The Kiwanis Club, the Rotary Club, and numerous community minded citizens became interested in the possibility of having an exchange student in Oceanside.

The first step was to form a committee of interested persons and to meet with a representative of the American Field Service in order to gain information about the formation of a local chapter. Mr. Bristol, as chairman of the group, filed a request that a student from a Nordic country be sent to Oceanside for the 1959-1960 school year. The Chapter then proceeded to raise the necessary funds.

Yvonne Svendsen, a native of Denmark, has been Oceanside's first exchange student. She is a charming young lady and we are proud to have her as a classmate and a friend.

Steps are now being taken to send two Oceanside students abroad for the summer. After much elimination, four finalists have been picked as most exemplary of the typical American youth. The American Field Service will make the final selection of the fortunate juniors who will represent OHS and the United States in a foreign country this summer.

The educational advantages of an exchange of cultures between the nations of the world are limitless. By working, living, and traveling with the youth of other lands, we feel that we are helping to further the causes of brotherhood and world peace.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Most and Yvonne

Spindrift

This year, the goal of the Spindrift staff has been to compile a record of the outstanding strides which have been made during the past fifty years in providing educational facilities for Oceanside's youth. The staff has delved into old books and musty closets in search of long forgotten records and pictures concerning Oceanside's past.

Under editors-in-chief Ruth Ann Mosback and Michael Perlman and faculty advisor Mr. Thomas P. Barden, the staff has worked conscientiously on layout, photography, and copy. The business and advertising staffs were advised by Mr. Angelo Storti.

The Oceanside Chapter of the National Honor Society is one of the most important and respected organizations in our school. Entrance is given to those who are judged outstanding in character, service, leadership, and scholarship.

This year under the direction of President Mitchell Hall and advisor Miss Susan Braca, the Honor Society enjoyed another fruitful year. Their many contributions included the sale of refreshments at basketball games and wrestling matches, the Midnight Club, and the Christmas party for our foreign exchange student. The Society has also contributed to the P. T. A. Scholarship Fund.

Arista

First row (L. to R.): F. Caporaso, G. Balding, M. Perlman, J. Slater, D. Dawson, S. Droboty, M. Cohen, I. Polow. Second row: J. Roehrich, P. Bogosian, Y. Svendson, V. Chimato, D. Colodner, E. The Girl's Leader Corps, headed by president Stephanie Droboty, helps out in gym classes, participates in demonstrations, and is in every way possible an aid to the Physical Education Department.

Members, under the supervision of Miss Helen Sedelmeyer, are chosen on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and athletic ability.

The Boy's Leader Corps, under the direction of Mr. Frank Januszewski of the Physical Education Department, assists in the gym classes and helps out at sporting events. The boys also acted as instructors and ushers.

Candidates for membership in the Corps are judged on the basis of leadership, scholarship and athletic ability, and are voted on by the present members with the approval of the Physical Education Department.

The Key Club, consisting of a group of energetic boys, helps at countless school and community activities. This year, under the leadership of President George Dirkes, and the supervision of Kiwanis advisor John Vandermosten and school advisor Charles Mosback, the Key Club gave its annual leadership banquet, sponsored the Snow Ball Dance, and was an invaluable aid at all sports activities. We can well be proud of our Key Club, for it exemplifies our school spirit of service.

Our active Service Club, under the leadership of president Caryn Freed and the supervision of advisors Miss Elaine Rapp and Miss Anne Raynor, has again had a busy year. This year the girls contributed to Newsday's Adopt-A-Family Program, filled the Red Cross Boxes and Christmas stockings for the veterans at Northport Hospital and have helped in countless other worthy causes. We can indeed be proud of our hardworking Service Club.

The thrill of acting is only a small part of producing a play, as the members of the Thespian Society can tell you. Just as important as the actors and the actressses are the make-up artists, lighting and sound technicians, property crewmen and stage hands, artists, publicity men, wardrobe girls and directors.

Ably led by president Leona Kerpel and advisor Miss Mary Williams, the Society put on its annual one-act play in assembly and helped in the school musical and the Senior Play.

Entrance into this fine Society is achieved by getting ten service points, which are earned by working on the various crews or casts.

The Lens, Oceanside High School's anthology of literary works, was this year under the editorship of Michael Perlman and the supervision of literary advisors Mr. Daniel Finn and Mr. Donald Johnston and art advisor Mrs. Louise Pollard.

The Lens has tried not only to publish the best poems, short stories, and essays of our students, but also to stimulate and mold their creative instincts into a worthwhile channel.

Art Service Club

Under the guidance of Mrs. Louise Pollard the Art Service Club gives our potential artists an opportunity to demonstrate their artistic abilities while improving our school's appearance. Besides doing most of the advertising for the school functions and for the Sailor Shop the club also performs many miscellaneous, but useful, duties for faculty and administrative members.

The Art Service Club is another organization which shows the variety of clubs offered by our school for a diversity of interests.

Library Staff

As aides for our two school librarians, Miss Kathleen Morrissey and Mrs. Ruth Abraham, the Library Staff, gives up study hall time to help in the library.

The girls process the new books, write out overdue notices and check books in and out.

These girls have found a way to learn the fundamental facts of library work while being of service to their fellow students.

Audio-Visual Squad

Under the direction of Mr. Angelo Plaia, the Audio-Visual Squad has had another worthwhile year of educating students through the media of sight and sound. Using such equipment as a tape recorder, television set, record player, film projectors, and the P.A. system, this group of boys have become an efficient team. Unselfishly giving up their free time and study halls to work, this group has learned how to operate modern equipment while helping our school.

Varsity Club

This club gives recognition to the athletes of our school. Under the direction of Mr. John Hay and Mr. Frank Mangiapane, the club has aided in many worthwhile activities, such as supervising home basketball games and other athletic activities. The club is open to all boys who have received a varsity letter.

Alpha Sigma

Alpha Sigma, more commonly known as the Science Honor Society, has been organized to further interests in the field of science and to give our young scientists experience in research work. Those who are applying for entrance must write a thesis, have at least a 90% average in science and an overall average of 85%.

Under the counsel of advisors Mr. Thomas Fetherston and Mr. William Eckhoff, the members have conducted such experiments as investigating the genetic properties of a fruit fly and trying to identify bacteria by the changes of the electrical resistance in the media.

Sailor Shop

Advised by Mrs. Harriet Strongin, the Sailor Shop has again had another successful year of serving our students. Open for 15 minutes before and after school, the Sailor Shop sells review books, paper and many other items needed for classwork.

This shop, besides offering a nearby store for pupils, also gives valuable sales practice for retailing students who act as clerks.

Mathletes

Today recognition for intellectual achievements, as well as physical, is rapidly increasing. Oceanside's Math Team, under advisor Mr. A. Joseph Haltmaier, gives our mathematical athletes a chance to flex their mental muscles by competing in the Math League, whereby over 25 schools meet and try to solve complex mathematical problems within specified time limits. Our Math Team grows in attendance each year and is truly a popular addition to our school.

The Latin Club

The Latin Club, Romani Hodierni, under the direction of Miss Rosemary Sutman and president Barbara Stern, has made a great expansion in the past year, both in members and activities.

The club holds an annual Saturnalia to which all foreign language students are invited, and also sponsors a Latin News paper, the Inter Nos, which comes out quarterly with literary selections, Latin crossword puzzles, and news of present and former students. Romani Hodierni also holds a banquet in the spring for all Latin students.

The primary purpose of the club is to further Latin as a modern language.

The French Club

The French Club is under the leadership of president Jeanne Bomberg and the guidance of advisor Mr. Lawrence Cascio. The members meets monthly to improve their skill in speaking the language through debates and discussions and to help spread French culture. As a bonus this year, the French Club and the French IV classes went on a guided tour of the U. N.

The Club is open to all students who are taking French and who are interested in furthering their knowledge of the language.

World Interest Club

Ably headed by faculty advisor Mr. Nicholas Voulangas and president Daniel Colodner, the World Interest Club attempts to stimulate intellectual growth in its members through the media of motion pictures and open discussion.

This year it has been concentrating on life and problems in the Far East. In connection with this, it presented a speaker from India in its assembly program.

Through its practice of sending tape recordings and letters to various countries, the World Interest Club has helped to promote good will and understanding abroad.

First row (L. to R.): L. Becker, D. Schecter, A. Steringer, D. Colodner, M. Colodner, N. Brause. Second row: E. Blumenthal, M. Hug, Y. Svendson, D. Heitler, H Cohen, F. Gilbert, J. Weissberg, N. Leo's Club

Leo's Club, headed by president Steven Peiper and advisor Robert Saia, is dedicated to the study of astronomy. The club members watch the stars at night with their telescopes and this year have gone to Massachusetts to witness an eclipse. The club also holds informal discussions and debates about all phases of astronomy.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, under president Daniel Colodner and advisor Mr. Joseph Vecchione, meets weekly to discuss the fine points of the game. Many exciting and interesting matches are played during these meetings, which offer the boys a chance to play a game while developing their intellectual curiosity.

Future Nurses of America

Under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Smitten, club advisor, and president Harriet Milch, the Future Nurses of America has grown in participation and popularity. The girls have become acquainted with the field of nursing through guest speakers and field trips.

Many of the girls have become Candy Stripers, a group of junior volunteers at South Nassau Communities Hospital.

Candy Stripers

The Candy Stripers are a group of hard-working girls, most of the future nurses, who volunteer their services to the South Nassau Communities Hospital. The girls get the satisfaction of helping while they learn at the same time. The girls have enjoyed another fruitful and rewarding year.

Future Teachers of America

Under advisor Mrs. Short, the Future Teachers of America acquire new understanding of the duties and responsibilities of a teacher. The club, open to all people interested in the teaching profession, achieves this understanding through films, discussions and numerous field trips. One project for this club is visiting elementary schools to observe techniques in the teaching of younger children.

This hardworking group of girls, advised by Miss Regina McDonough, ushered for virtually all our school functions. Besides ushering, these girls handed out programs for such school plays and musicals as Teahouse of the August Moon and The Bells Are Ringing and graciously served coffee and cake at such affairs as the Honor Society Banquet. These girls, easily distinguished by their ready smile, have become an indispensible part of our school.

Ushers' Club

Our Usher's Club, led by head usher Harvey Tauber, has again played a vital part at our assemblies. Under the supervision of Mr. Murdock Cunningham, the club has conscientiously presided over all seating arrangements and helped to keep order during entrances and departures. Our assemblies would never have been as successful as they were without this energetic group of boys.

Weather Station

Our rooftop weather station, under advisor Mr. Thomas Fetherston, is one of 45 Meteorological Departments found in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Our young weathermen record the high and low temperatures and the amounts of precipitation, which records are then sent to the Department of Interior in Washington, D. C.

This activity offers to our students a chance to find out more about some of the interesting phases of meteorology.

Sider Press

The Sider Press emerged ten times from its cocoon with a lively paper covering news from G.O. elections to national elections. Under the leadership of editors-in-chief Jill Slater and Dan Nussbaum and advisor Miss Marion Musante, the entire paper, including the feature section, was expanded. The columnist Wilson MacAndrews, or Maris Cakars, revealed his wit in satirical essays. An unusually large staff helped compose the copy which was highlighted by numerous pictures taken by staff photographers. The business and advertising staffs, advised by Mr. Angelo Storti, combined to put the paper in the black. By working during lunch periods, and before the mail leaves on Saturday mornings, and by speeding to the Floral Park printer the day before publication, the Sider Press staff managed to meet every deadline and win reader acclaim.

MARILYN KILARJIAN

Music Department

The music department of Oceanside High School is becoming more important every year. The Band has made weekly assemblies throughout the year more enjoyable by playing marches as students entered and left, and special selections at several assemblies. The Band begins its season with the first assembly and plays at all home football games and other school affairs, closing its season with the graduation ceremony.

For the second time, Oceanside's band, under the direction of Mr. Allan Segal, has joined the bands from Long Beach and Southside High Schools to present the Tri-Band Festival. Some of the favorite pieces played were the overtures from "Gigi" and "The Flower Drum Song." For the first time this year the Tri-Band Festival was taped with the new recording equipment the music department received this year. The music was made into a recording which was available to the students of all three schools. One band member this year, Steve Kramer, was selected for the All-State Sectional Competition. The band had also entered the annual New York State Music Association Competition for a rating.

Under the direction of Mr. John Race, the chorus has shown progress this year. Its contribution to the Christmas Assembly made it a memorable occasion. The final performance at graduation was the climax of a year of hard work.

This year, one of our chorus members was fortunate in being selected for the All-State Competition. Marilyn Kilarjion rose to the occasion and was awarded first soprano in the All-State Chorus.

This year also saw the formation of a boys' glee club, under the direction of Mr. John Race. We saw its debut at the Christmas Assembly.

Athletics

I, the Spirit of Athletics, am the embodiment of one of Oceanside High's basic precepts, honorable competition. Throughout my fifty years of existence, I have always kept honor, not victory, as my goal and have been fortunate enough to garner both.

Growth has also been another basic part of my nature. In those first days of our school, athletics was limited, due to the lack of a gymnasium, but we still managed to field a respectable baseball team. In 1918, there arose a strong desire for a football team, but alas! there was as yet no regular physical education teacher. Always resourceful, the students prevailed upon one of the female members of the faculty to coach. Surprisingly enough, the team was one of the most successful of our school's long line of teams.

Striving onward, our school gradually added sport after sport to its curriculum. From 1932 to 1934 we had the distinction of being one of the few schools on the island who had polo as a regular sport. Our progress hasn't stopped, either. Just two years ago we added Indoor Track to our list of sports.

On the distaff side, our girls' sports were added during the 1930's. In 1936, to decide an argument over whether the school's students should be called either Pirates or Sailors, the girls founded Sportnite, leading to today's present tradition.

This year has also followed the tradition of being another year of victory at OHS, another year of excitement. Our athletes brought credit to our school, not only by their skill, but by their enthusiasm and integrity. They have truly exemplified Oceanside High's belief in victory with honor.

This year's badminton team celebrated one of its most successful seasons. Aided by veterans and newcomers, the team placed first in the L. I. G. A. Honor Day at Baldwin. These girls not only experienced the tough competition that is a part of badminton, but also enjoyed the privilege of being Nassau's number one team.

Not to be outdone by the badminton team, the tennis team also placed first in the L. I. G. A. Honor Day. Most of us have played tennis at one time or another as a pleasant pastime, but few of us have had to play under the strain of the strong competition that these girls encountered at Honor Day. They all played their best tennis, and our team emerged victorious.

Bowling is by far the most popular participation sport in this country, and our girls at OHS are no exception. This year many new girls joined the bowling team. Under the leadership of Miss Mushier, the girls were able to improve their games through practice and drill. The newcomers experienced the thrill of seeing a teamate come through in the clutch, as Janet Gonier did with several 200 games.

Archery is the girls' version of riflery. In archery, the girls experience a new form of competition, for their most dangerous opponent is themselves. To learn to steady their hand and aim correctly takes a great deal of practice, but the girls enjoy the challenge.

One of the most challenging and invigorating sports is hockey. Many spectators wonder how the girls can play on those chilly fall days, but if you ask any veteran hockey player, she will tell you that it only takes one play to get warmed up. The rules and objects of hockey are almost identical with soccer's except that it is played with a small hard rubber ball and a stick. It is an extremely fast-moving and rugged game, requiring a great deal of skill, power, and endurance. This year's team saw plenty of action and enjoyed a very successful season under the direction of Miss Mushier.

In its second year at OHS, lacrosse became a very popular sport with our girls. Being a sport very similar to hockey, it is quite fast-moving and rugged. However, the lacrosse girls are playing under one disadvantage; instead of playing in the cool fall air, they must play under the blistering summer sun. For this, and for their fine showing this season, the girls should be congratulated.

LACROSSE: Kneeling (L. to R.): S. Droboty, P. Roehrich, G. Worsnopp, G. Jachmann, N. Davison. Standing: E. Liss, A. Gruhn, D. Delson, C. Hassett, J. Eleftherion, J. Brennan.

We had an outstanding honor volleyball team in this class of '60. We were well represented, because our team consisted of our best and most athletic seniors. It was sparked by an outstanding player, Deanna Delson, captain of the Honor Team. During the season the team defeated Baldwin, Calhoun, Lawrence, Hewlett, and Southside. To top off the year, they finished in first place in their tournament on Honor Day.

I'm sure we'll all agree that the highlight of the season was the defeat these "feminine devils" gave to the boy's honor team in their three game match. Thus, the girls remained undefeated in all intermural and intramural games.

During basketaball season the gym is a busy place. The girls try their luck until 4:15, at which time Mr. Jan and his boys take over and show the girls how they think it should be done.

With Miss Helen Sedelmeyer at the helm, the girls really put a lot of work into this sport. Although it comes at the same time of the year as Sportnite, girls still find time to play.

Divided into guards and forwards, the girls' games were not quite as wild as the boys', but they were just as exciting. As in other girls' sports, class teams were chosen to play against various Long Island schools. Their Honor Day was very enjoyable this year.

Basketball is always an interesting sport because new rules are being constantly instituted. Girls also become interested in officiating their own games.

BASKETBALL: Kneeling (L. to R.): C. Barry, D. Delson, L. Sodemann, J. Haight. Standing: N. Ludwig, C. Trevithick, C. Hassett, B. Barnes.

In the spring a young girl's fancy turns to thoughts of being outdoors. Since this is impossible during school hours, she must wait until 2:36, when softball begins. Under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Cherry, this sport has an enormous turnout every year. Fortunately Oceanside High School has an extensive athletic field, and it provides ample space for all participants. After each class has been divided into various teams, the girls start swinging bats and tossing softballs all over the place.

Class teams are chosen to play against numerous schools on Long Island. Our softball teams represent us well and always come home pleasantly exhausted, if not always victorious.

The Softball Honor Team, which consists of the best players from all classes, participate each year in an Honor Day. This year's team celebrated its last Honor Day with a victorious showing.

Modern dance is an art based on the creative use of movement. Its inclusion in the program of physical education has been a natural and normal outgrowth of the concepts of physical education, which are to develop and foster purposeful activity physically, mentally and socially.

Under the competent leadership of Mrs. Evelyn Cherry, the girls and a few interested boys meet on Mondays and Wednesdays, the beginning and advanced groups respectively.

After months of creative work, these girls display their skill in a Sportnite demonstration.

Football Squad

Mr. Scannella, head coach, felt that this season was a very outstanding one because of the fact that Oceanside started off with few seasoned players and came up with an impressive season's record of six and two.

Rudy Santoli received the Most Valuable Player award; Best Lineman award went to Joe Kunkel, and Terry Brennan received the Most Improved Player award.

Highlights of the 1959 season were Rudy Santoli's spectacular ninety-nine yeard run in the first game of the season against Baldwin. John D'Apolito scored the winning TD on a seventy-five yard run after intercepting a Levittown pass. Tom Turner also scored the winning TD on an intercepted pass and a seventy-five yard run against Massapequa. Coach Scannella also cited Kunkel, Paterson and Wade as the finest linemen for the '59 season.

The bowling team enjoyed another year filled with good competition and victory. Dan Mark kept the school colors high with a 170 average with Bill Mainwald close behind at 162. The team was ably coached by Mr. Steven Delligatti.

There were about twenty-five boys associated with bowling this year. They met at Mid-Isle Bowling Center in Hempstead every Wednesday evening.

This year the tennis team had an exciting although not a victorious season. The team's record was four victories and seven defeats. Under the able guidance of Mr. Janezewski, the boys played good and exciting tennis. Most of the matches were very close and with a little luck we could have had a winning season. Even so, many of the boys received valuable experience that they will use next year. It was an enjoyable season for all concerned.

The Oceanside High School Soccer Team began the 1959-60 season as the defending Nassau County Champions. As the season progressed, the team compiled win after win. With no defeats in league play, it looked as if Oceanside would retain its crown. The playoff game against Southside took place at the Hofstra College athletic field. The game was extremely well played by both teams. At the end of the regular playing time, the score was tied at two all. An overtime period was played. With less than a minute left to play Southside scored. This decided the game.

This team is still regarded as one of the finest to emerge from Oceanside High. Louis Paggi, one of the outstanding players, was elected to the All-Scholastic Soccer Team.

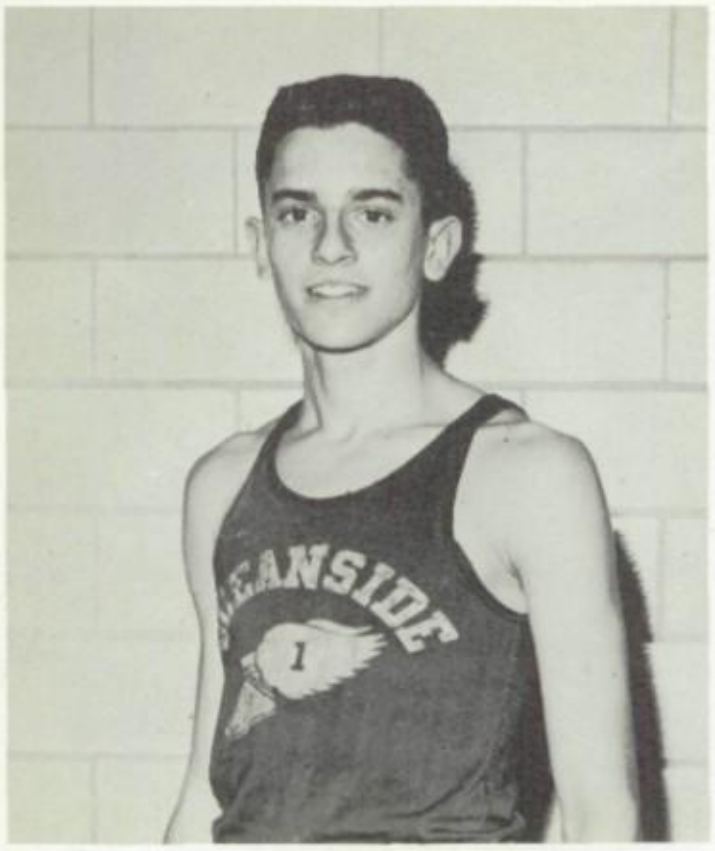
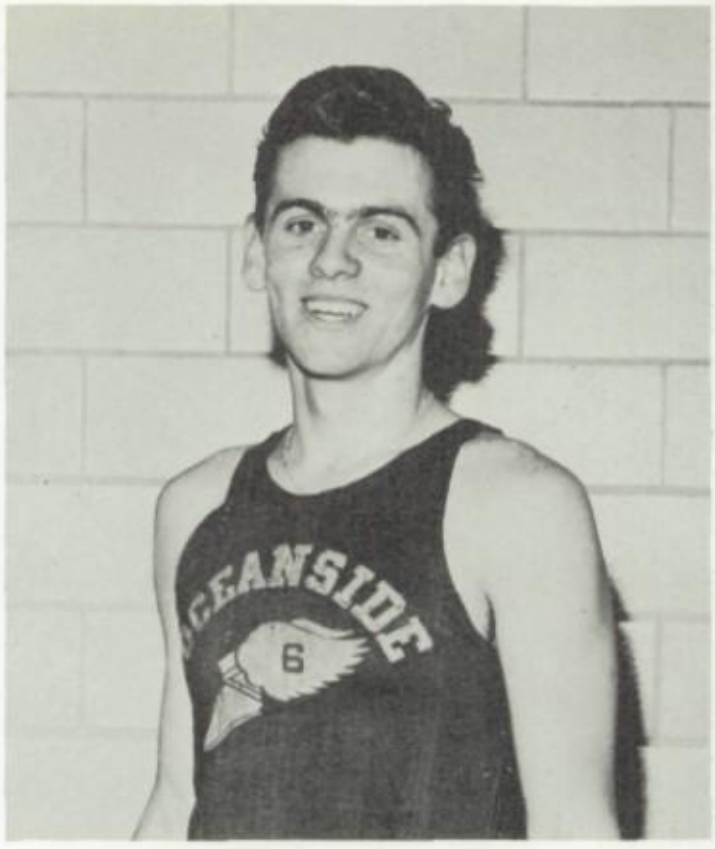
Track and Field



KEN SACK



STEVE KILLORIN

For the second time in the last three years the Indoor Track team placed first in the novice division at the Cardinal Hayes High School. Our cross country team also enjoyed a very successful season ending the season with seven wins and only one defeat. This outstanding team placed second in the annual SSAL championship meet and finished second behind Sewanhaka in the Nassau County championships.

Steve Killorin was again the outstanding member of our cross country team. Steve took first place in SSAL and Nassau County competition. The highlight of this successful season came when Steve took first place in the state finals at Colgate University.
